5. In November 1950, a total of seventy-five 20 and 21-year-old Poles and ethnic Germans were inducted in Brzezinka (Q 51/Y 66). After they had assembled in Szopienice (Q 51/Y 67) the inductees were taken to Katowice (Q 51/Y 57) in trucks and then proceeded by rail to military posts in eastern Poland. The registration of the 45 to 55-year-olds in Brzezinka was started in early March 1951. The draft board set no date for a possible induction. (3).
